

DISTANCE LEARNING

If you need more flexibility in your course schedule, Distance Learning has several options:

| | COURSE LENGTH | COURSE LOCATION | DUE DATES |
|--|--|--|---|
| ONLINE | 5, 7, 12, and 15-week classes | 100% Online* *All MATH courses require on-campus exams | Weekly Due Dates |
| HYBRID | 5, 7, 12, and 15-week classes | Approximately 50% online/ 50% traditional classroom | Scheduled Due Dates |
| OPEN ENTRY/ OPEN EXIT (SELF-PACED) | 7, 12, and 15 week classes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Actual course length determined by you within the semester Extended enrollment window Opportunity to finish the course early | Predominately online <ul style="list-style-type: none"> On-campus orientation and assessment(s) required All faculty host office hours on campus to support your learning | No Weekly Due Dates Due dates determined by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> How much time you need to learn a topic When you are ready to complete an assessment Semester deadlines |

To register for Distance Learning classes, go to www.schoolcraft.edu. For more information, contact the Distance Learning Department.

