Program Description

The Health Information Technology program will prepare the student to be a Health Information Technician. The technician is responsible for performing tasks related to the use, analysis, validation, presentation, abstracting, coding, storage, security, retrieval, quality measurement, and control of health information. Important points about the HIT program include:

- Forty-eight (48) students are admitted each fall semester.

- In addition to lecture and laboratory experiences, the program requires two off-campus daytime professional practice experiences also referred to as clinical affiliation.
- Students who satisfactorily complete all program/college requirements qualify for an Associate of Applied Science Degree. Graduates are eligible to take the Registered Health Information Technician (RHIT) examination and/or the Certified Coding Associate (CCA) examination offered by the American Health Information Management Association (AHIMA).
- The Health Information Technology Program is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM).

2. In the event that more than one qualified student applies on the same day, the order of acceptance will be based on the student's cumulative grade point average at Schoolcraft College and then by residency if needed.
3. When the maximum number of qualified applicants has been accepted, students will be considered for acceptance into the next available semester.
4. Applications received from non-qualified students are returned and may be resubmitted after the application requirements are complete.
