Philosophy — 2012–2013 CATALOG

The ability to think.

Can you imagine a more important skill? A better tool for getting along in the world? Our courses in philosophy will introduce you to basic questions in ethics, politics, religion, logic and more. They will challenge you to discern valid arguments from invalid ones with an eye toward applying abstract concepts to issues in contemporary society. Many courses that teach job skills are perceived to be “practical” insofar as leading you to a career. And while that may be true, which is ultimately more important for getting along in the world—being able to perform a given task or being able to think? Let that question be your introduction to philosophy.

WHY CHOOSE A COURSE IN PHILOSOPHY?

Because...

- You want to think critically about contemporary social, moral and ethical issues.
- You want to understand the fundamental principles of logic.
- Your favorite Star Trek character is Mr. Spock.
- You want credits that may count toward your associate degree.
- You want credits that may transfer toward a four-year degree.

Philosophy courses are identified by the prefix PHIL.
