

MAXIMIZING INTERACTIONS WITH THE SPECIAL NEEDS POPULATION

Thursday, February 13, 2025 | 08:30am - 3:30pm | $200 per person
Schoolcraft College - Firearms Training Center @ 31623 Industrial Rd, Livonia
To register, email leis@schoolcraft.edu

302-Funded | SNC-Funded

- Myths, statistics, and trends
- Behavioral characteristics
- Communication strategies
- Sensory processing challenges
- Tools and resources
- Interacting with nonverbal people
- Industry-specific language
- Special needs family panel

Dr. Stephanie Zoltowski-Siordia is a military veteran who served as a police officer in the Navy. She earned her Doctorate of Psychology degree in 2015. Her specialties are mental health, professional development, and behavioral therapy for children with autism and other developmental disabilities. She has certifications in Nonviolent Crisis Intervention, ASIST Suicide Training, Mental Health First Aid, and Behavioral Health for Military Personnel. Since 2020, she has trained 50+ agencies in Michigan.